Re: Curtis Lee, et al v. County of Passaic, et al
Civil Docket No. 09-cv-5735

Dear Judge Cox Arleo:

Kindly be advised that I am in receipt of your correspondence dated January 20, 2010, and would like to update you with answers to the inquiries raised therein.

On December 29, 2009, I electronically filed an Affidavit of Service indicating proper service of process on both defendants. I was sometime thereafter contacted by Sandro Polledri, Esq., from the law firm of Genova, Burns & Vernoia, who informed me that he would be representing all defendants in this matter. He requested an extension of time in which to file an answer or otherwise move, to which I consented and subsequently executed a stipulation memorializing same.

Upon filing of the Answer, it was my intention to contact Mr. Polledri and schedule a telephone conference for the purpose of agreeing upon a joint discovery plan. Of course, I do not know whether Mr. Polledri intends on actually filing an answer or instead filing a Rule 12 motion of dismissal.

I am providing Mr. Polledri with a courtesy copy of this letter as well as a copy of your January 20, 2010 correspondence.

Should you have any further inquiries or comments please do not hesitate to contact me.

Honorable Madeline Cox Arleo, U.S.M.J.
